WHEREAS, the 12 Junior Chambers of Commerce in South Dakota have dedicated themselves to an all-out effort for victory; and

WHEREAS, these Junior Chambers of Commerce have assisted in organizing War Bonds and Stamps Sales and Scrap Campaigns, and these and other worthwhile programs have been successfully carried out despite the fact that over 40 percent of its membership is serving in the armed forces of our country; and

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Junior Chamber of Commerce has done outstanding war work in our State and each and every citizen should pause to pay tribute to these young men;

NOW, THEREFORE, I M.Q.Sharpe, Governor of South Dakota, by the authority vested in me by law, do solemnly proclaim the period from January 14-21 as "Junior Chamber of Commerce Week" within the State of South Dakota, for the purpose of recognizing a job well done and for making a definite contribution to the war.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my name and caused the seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed thereunto in the City of Pierre, this the 14th day of January, 1943.

M Q SHARPE
